

RescueNet360 Founder Compensation Framework

ARR-Based Founder Compensation Targets

ARR Stage	CTO	CEO	Head of Marketing/Growth
Pre-ARR / Early Profitability	$60k-$95k	$60k-$85k	$55k-$75k
$250k-$750k ARR	$120k-$150k	$115k-$145k	$100k-$130k
$1M+ ARR (Full-Time Founder Scale)	$180k	$170k-$180k	$155k-$175k
$3M-$5M ARR	$210k-$250k	$210k-$240k	$190k-$230k

Role Positioning

CTO

Primary technical owner of platform architecture, engineering execution, infrastructure, product systems, and long-term scalability. In RescueNet360's SaaS-heavy model, the CTO role carries high replacement cost and foundational product responsibility.

CEO

Owns company direction, partnerships, fundraising, operations, strategic alignment, and executive leadership across the business.

Head of Marketing/Growth & Sponsorships

Owns awareness, acquisition, partnerships, sponsorship revenue, sponsor relationships, growth strategy, conversion optimization, and long-term market expansion. This role is responsible for turning RescueNet360's sponsorship model into a real revenue channel, not just general marketing.

Compensation Philosophy

- Founder salaries scale with sustainable ARR and operational stability.
- CTO and CEO should remain near parity while the company is highly product and engineering driven.
- Growth compensation scales upward as sponsorship revenue, customer acquisition, and measurable revenue attribution mature.
- Compensation should never materially threaten runway or platform execution velocity.